Hysterical Laughter. Four Ancient Comedies About Women.

By CHRISTENSON, D.,

Condition: New. Oxford University Press, 2014. 304p. Paperback. Hysterical Laughter features four classic Greek and Roman plays - Lysistrata, Samia, Casina, and Hecyra each starring strong female characters. Each play is an excellent example of these great playwrights' work, and juxtaposing them brings out both similarities and differences in their ideas and their stagecraft. As the author demonstrates, each play challenges its society's ideas about women and gender roles, using hilarious comic techniques. The translations are close, but very lively, boldly including the originals' vulgarity and even obscenity; they ought to be staged as well as read. The introductions, informed by the latest scholarship, provide information about women in the ancient world and the original performance conditions; the notes are succinct and helpful, the bibliographies excellent. This book will be ideal in classical studies, history, theater, and women's studies classes. Mary-Kay Gamel, University of California, Santa Cruz |a 13/02/15 (Publisher's information). Condition: New Print on Demand. Printed on Demand.
