

Go Wild!: 101 Things to Do Outdoors Before You Grow Up

By Fiona Danks

Frances Lincoln. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 160 pages. Young people these days are often homebound, entertaining themselves with the Internet, television, video games, and text messages, but completely disconnected from the reality of the great outdoors. Many have never experienced simple pleasures such as telling stories around a warm campfire, camping outdoors, or whittling a stick. Go Wild! is the perfect book for families with children ages 10 to 14 wanting to get in touch with the natural world. The authors describe a range of wild and fun adventures for families to share. Readers learn potentially life-saving skills that give them confidence, independence, and a sense of environmental awareness. Topics include building shelter, building a fire, foraging for food, cooking outdoors, tools and weapons, bushcraft skills, water and keeping clean, and safety. From making a catapult to catching crayfish, creating fire without matches to constructing a tepee, Go Wild! is all about thrilling activities, amazing discoveries, and young people having the time of their lives in the great outdoors. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Paperback.

Go Wild! (US link here) By Jo Schofield and Fiona Danks has the subtitle: "101 things to do outdoors before you grow up". Making fire, making shelters, whittling wood, knots, it's all there in an engaging way, well illustrated with explanatory text and photos of youngsters doing just that. So too is outdoors foraging and cooking, which has upset a few reviewers who don't think children should see a picture of a dead rabbit while the child tucks into a beef stew for dinner. Whatever you do, do try to get your young ones reading during the summer holidays. And if you can get them to go outdoors and read, so much the better, and if you can get them to read in woodland then you're doing them a massive service. Any or all of the above trio would fit the bill happy reading!
