They love reading books alone looking at the pictures, and are always asking my husband or myself to read aloud to them. And eldest who has started to read loves reading books to his little brother. They also both love bedtime stories, which they cannot go without. Usually we spend a good half an hour every evening reading kids books in both English and Italian. A fantastic story book for kids and a guide to daily happiness. This children's story book teaches kids valuable lessons about kindness. With an invisible bucket that follows you everywhere, children learn to "fill their own bucket" and also the bucket of others by showing kindness and being happy.
