Working Together as God Intended Designed for Businesses, Churches and Corporations. It is the author's position to hire only Christians who are journalers and tithers when developing a ministry/business enterprise. As God distilled these 20 key Biblical principles of management through my heart, I realized that these were just as applicable for pastors who managed churches as they were for businessmen who managed businesses or corporations. Therefore the following 20 key principles are for all who find themselves in positions where they manage other people. Biblical Basis for Discipleship. Matthew 28:18-20 18 Then Jesus came to them and said, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. 19 Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, 20 and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you." In all, the command to disciple finds its fulfillment in evangelism and education. The discipleship characteristics as commanded by Jesus appear not only in this commission, but throughout the Gospels.5. Jesus's Model Discipleship was Jesus's method of winning the world to Himself. In fact, Jesus converted very few people in His earth ministry in a clear-cut way. He literally staked His whole ministry on twelve men.

The process of discipleship involves a relationship where a mature believer uses the Word of God to teach reprove, correct and train another disciple in order that he/she becomes increasingly more like Christ. When it comes to God's 3-fold Purpose for the Church, its not a question of which one is most important.

“Therefore, go and make disciples of all nations.” The command is as clear as day. Yet our understanding of how to live out the command is often foggy. Since becoming a Christian, I have lived in four different cities, and I have been involved in numerous discipleship movements. Each of these sought to live out Jesus’s words above, but each of them modeled discipleship in a different way. I have learned that there is not a cookie-cutter approach to discipleship laid out for us in Scripture. In his letter to the Colossians, Paul writes two brief sentences from which I have drawn five fundamental principles of discipleship. No matter how narrow or broad our definition of discipleship, we mustn’t swerve from these principles. We return to our wonderful study of Luke’s Gospel. Open your Bible, if you will, to Luke chapter 9. This is how we inform our worship, so that we can worship in spirit and in truth. We inform it with the truth of God’s Word. Any and every passage is from God and is rich and instructive. But the one we look at this morning is particularly so. It was an attempt at a new reformation; it was an attempt to replace the gospel “the biblical gospel” with a new gospel, and it worked. In that book, Self-Esteem: The New Reformation, Robert Schuller writes “quote” “it is precisely at this point that classical theology has erred in its insistence that theology be God-centered and not man-centered.”
