authentic reading in English. The selection of reading material at an appropriate level for learners is therefore one of the most important decisions that a language teacher must make. Evaluating materials for an authentic reading Experience.Â This makes it possible for the reader to simultaneously recognize and understand words, while at the same time constructing a text model of comprehension. The small number of unknown words can then be skipped, or the reader can have a go at guessing their meaning from context. It is therefore critical that teachers pay close attention to the vocabulary load of the texts that they use in a reading course. Keeping it Real. One oft-heard criticism of the use of simplified texts is that they sound wooden and unnatural.
