The way Phillippa wrote it, conjured up so much imagination in my young mind. I felt I could literally see the characters, I could see life through Katy's eyes as if it were my own, feel her struggles, and even see Satin Shore. It made me fall in love with reading even more than I already was and I remember finding it amazing that a book could make me disappear into another world, a feeling I still love now. I still read this book every now a This was one of my favourite books to read as a child. The way Phillippa wrote it, conjured up so much imagination in my young mind. I felt I could I
